Our 2015 Groom Adelaide Hills Sauvignon Blanc is probably the most overt sauvignon blanc we have produced from our vineyard. It is certainly a contrast to the leaner style the 2014 season produced.

The 2015 harvest is being touted by winemakers as the best harvest in the Adelaide Hills in the last decade. We agree. One of the major battles with the AH region is autumn (fall) rains that causes many challenges. This year we were completely dry and enhanced further by perfect warm days and cool nights.

The 2015 is a myriad of apple, citrus, fig and pear with some dominant passion fruit and grassy characters. The palate is deliciously crisp, dry and refreshing and very easy to drink. Beware!! This wine is great drinking with seafood, salads, sushi and Asian cuisine or simply enjoying on its own with friends.
