JAMES HALLIDAY: THE AUSTRALIAN WINE COMPANION

93 points

Deep garnet, purple hue; a fresh bouquet of confit blackberry, and a touch of bitter chocolate; the palate is quite fleshy, with plenty of fresh fruit on offer; quite weighty on the finish, with some noticeable warmth from the alcohol, there is plenty of stuffing in this wine to enjoy. Concentrated black fruits and mocha oak, quintessential BV shiraz in its plush massive exuberant soft tannin and ripe fruit style.

Ripe and generous, with a streak of welcome minerality to the broad cherry, raspberry, beet and spice flavors, lingering easily with a hint of green tea as the finish lingers enticingly.
